

Men's Wearing Apparel

If you went into the clothing business what would you do to get us to buy your fall wearing apparel at your store?

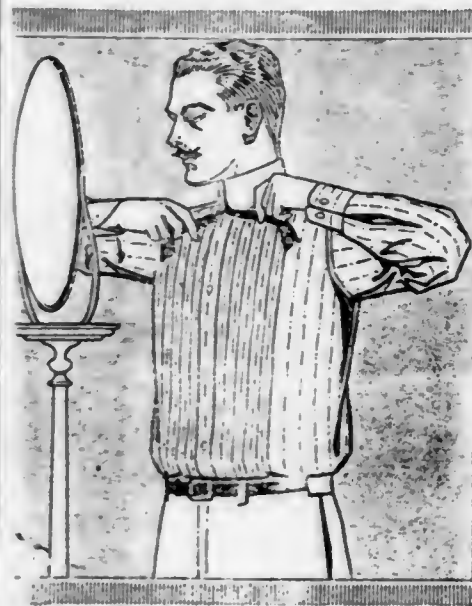

You have your own ideas as to how a man's store should be operated. If we could read your thoughts we would endeavor to serve you as you would us if the tables were turned.

We know that we have adopted the first principles of good business by providing merchandise of quality and good taste marked at very close prices—the only thing remaining to be done is to find the particular touch of store service that will make shopping pleasant for you at this store.

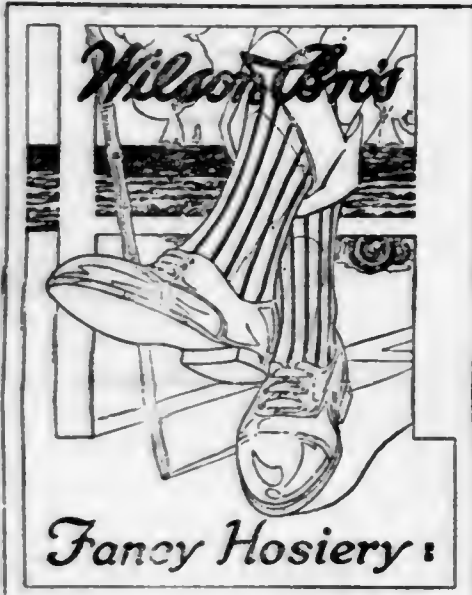

Suppose the next time that you have anything to buy in men's wearing apparel from a shoe string to a suit of clothes, that you come in and put us to the test—see if we are good enough judge of your wishes to make you want to come again.

The "Votes For Women" Movement a Forerunner of "Feminism" and Sex War.

ITS AIM THE END OF A MAN-MADE WORLD. A MAN MADE RELIGION AND A MAN-MADE BIBLE.

WHOLLY ANTI-CHRISTIAN.

From Courier-Journal.

In an article entitled "The Free Woman of the North," by Mabel Potter Daggett, in the Pictorial Review of September 1915, we are told of the wonderful advances of women in the Scandinavian countries, owing to the fact that they have the vote. She says here in America we have thought we had comparatively easy divorce, but in America to obtain a divorce, there must be "grounds," which means that one party or the other to the marriage must be guilty of wrong to the other, but in Scandinavia the law does not require husband and wife to wait until one has wronged the other. They may secure a divorce for the asking. It doesn't cost anything. There is not even a lawyer needed. The process is simple; one notifies the magistrate that you are separating. You are not required to go into details. You simply state that you no longer wish to continue the marriage. Then one party to the contest goes away for a year—in Finland it is for only three months at the end of that period the magistrate hands you the papers that dissolve the marriage as quietly as it was made.

But even this amount of freedom does not satisfy the voting Scandinavian woman. Scandinavia has originated the "conscience marriage," which is without any legal tie. It is simply an announcement in the newspapers that this man and this woman take each other for husband and wife. Either, of course, is free to leave the other at any time. This marital freedom, Miss Daggett tells us, has come through economic freedom. With the revision of the marriage relation, all special privileges for women, she tells us, are being abolished. This is the road on which suffrage and feminism are traveling.

After their recent big defeat the suffragist are turning their attention to new fields, and Kentucky is to be the next victim of their agitation. A State suffrage convention is to be held in Lexington next week, and two foreign suffrage agitators are to be sent to inspire Kentucky women with added zeal for the cause.

One of these is Mrs. Philip Snowden, a prominent English Socialist, who spends much time in this country working for suffrage. Mrs. Snowden will probably not express her Socialist sentiments freely in Kentucky, for American women are to be led on step by step, the first step on the road to Socialism and Feminism being woman suffrage; but in Mrs. Snowden's book, "The Woman Socialist," she states her ideal as follows: "Free as the wind, the Socialist wife will be bound only by her natural love for her husband and children—divorce will be much more easy of accomplishment and it is more than probable that the church marriage service will be abolished."

"Frau" Rosika Schwimmer, secretary of the International Suffrage Alliance, is the other distinguished foreigner. "Frau" Schwimmer is the woman who spoke for the suffragist in a saloon in Columbus, Ohio, during the recent suffrage campaign in that State. She was introduced by the owner of the saloon, and she said: "It gave me a splendid opportunity to make clear that the suffrage party has no affiliations with either the wet or the dry interests." It was an interesting outcome of the suffrage attempt to face both ways on the liquor question that the prohibitionists turned against them and were a large factor in their overwhelming defeat by 182,100 in Ohio.

It might be supposed from "Frau" Schwimmer's title that she was a married woman, but this, it seems is not the case. She is one of the many feminists in Europe who have assumed the married woman's title in order to shield the mothers of illegitimate children. They argue that if all women married or single, have the same title it will not be evident whether a woman is married or not! Instead of trying to lessen illegitimacy, these Feminists are trying to remove every prejudice against it in law, custom or public opinion. In the countries where women vote they boast of great success on these lines. In Norway since women vote, a law has been passed that if there is doubt as to the paternity of an illegitimate child and if the mother can implicate several men as possible fathers they may all be taxed for her benefit! (See "Feminism in Germany and Scandinavia," by Katherine Anthony, published by Henry Holt & Co.)

Mrs. Snowden and "Frau" Schwimmer are the leaders chosen by the suffragists to lead Kentucky women on the path they wish them to take, and on which they say suffrage is only a step. Let no one be deceived by the fact that Feminism is not much talked of at suffrage meetings at present. The suffrage leaders are clever enough to know that it is dangerous until the vote is secured. When women have become voters, then it is assumed that they are ready to take further steps toward the Feminist goal. In Chicago women have already taken the first step, and at the recent National Suffrage Convention in that city, Prof. W. I. Thomas, of Chicago University, told his hearers that "Any girl, mentally mature, has a right to motherhood," and that woman's assertion of her right to motherhood is a revolution that is coming and no one can stop it."

What were the comments of the prominent suffragists who heard Prof. Thomas' address? Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, the president of the National Suffrage Association, said:

"The address has set every woman who heard it thinking, and they are thinking women who will consider both sides of such a proposition. Political emancipation is not the only emancipation. Evidently the suffragist and feminist leaders are fighting also for emancipation from the principal of Christianity and monogamy!"

The character of the women at the head of the suffrage movement constitutes this movement a menace to the welfare of the country. Dr. Shaw said in the New York Evening Post for February 25, 1915, that she believed in woman suffrage even if every woman voted wrong, and that she believed in saying this she spoke for the thousands of women belonging to her association.

Mrs. Belmont, the famous leader of the Woman's Congressional Union, one of the largest suffrage societies in the country, said in an interview in the New York Times on Oct. 30: "If the women do not win here they will go on with the campaign in the State, but there will not be much to do, and they may as well torment the member of the Federal Government. I expect to spend a great deal of my own time in Washington this winter."

A deliberate plan to "torment" the members of the Federal Government at a time when these men are confronted with the most serious problems our country has had to face since the Civil War shows what unpatriotic voters these women would be if enfranchised. It is nothing short of a blessing to the country that many thousands of anti-suffrage men and women are awake to the danger in the movement.

The only states to accept woman suffrage since 1912 are Nevada and Montana, which are little more than mining camps and are the wettest states in the union. The suffragists owe their success in these states to the Socialist and I. W. W.s, who are everywhere allied with the suffrage cause and who are particularly strong in those states. Woman suffrage has been defeated in the last year in the great states of New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Nebraska, North and South Dakota, Ohio and Missouri by overwhelming majorities. The Legislatures of the following states have defeated it also: Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Delaware, Indiana, Michigan, North Carolina, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Oklahoma, Texas, Missouri, Ohio, Nebraska, Florida and Alabama.

When Kentucky's turn comes, there is little doubt that her name will be added to this roll of honor.

DANIEL BOONE'S HOME

Interesting Reminiscences of The Famous Pioneer.

The Solid Old House in St.
Charles County, Mo. Where He Spent His Last Days.

From St. Louis Globe-Democrat, December 5, 1892.

To the stranger passing through the valley of the Femme Osage, in the Eastern part of Missouri, the greatest object of interest is the house built years ago by Daniel Boone.

Back from the winding valley road at a respectable distance it stands, low eaved, dingy, massively built, so near the bluff is it that, seen from the west, it seems to be entirely within the embrace of the cedar crowned arms of the rocks towering above it. Almost a century old, it is solid looking and as defiant of the passing of time as its granite background.

Here the last years of Daniel Boone's life were spent, and in the little upstairs room facing the frame addition, which phlegmatic utilitarians have built as a "lean to", the spirit of the greatest pioneer known in western history, winged its way to that world which even he might not explore in the flesh. With the growing reverence for history treating of America and Americans, it is passing strange that the foremost pioneer in the development of the west should be so nearly forgotten. The bones of Boone now rest in Kentucky soil, in what he lovingly termed "the happy hunting ground." But all ends there. No attempt has been made to appropriately mark the spot near Marthasville, Warren county, where Boone's body was first consigned to earth. The German tenant of the house in which the pioneer died has no knowledge of its history. If it were not for the old stone house in the valley of the Femme Osage and the numerous bits of interesting history in the country where he died his memory would be but a misty blur upon the minds of the oldest and as a blank to the younger generation.

The house in which he died is an interesting structure. It was built nearly a century ago. The walls are of bright blue limestone, and in many years have changed but little. Sombre grayish tints running thru it here and there alone show the ravages of time. In many places the walls are six feet thick, and safely inside a wayfarer may defy the elements. When this massive old structure was erected it marked the extreme western limit of western agricultural efforts. It was, in fact, on the boundary line between the known civilization west of the Mississippi river and the unknown wilderness still further west of it. It was one of the first houses erected in St. Charles county, and at that time the now fertile fields along both banks of the Femme Osage were a dense wilderness. Hostile Indians were on both sides. In this wilderness the sturdy pioneer built his home. In it none but the most lasting material was used—blue limestone for the walls and hand sawed oak and black walnut for the wood work. The latter days of the pioneer's adventurous life were spent at this place with his sons, Nathan and D. M. Boone. For several years he occupied a garret room of the old house as a sitting room and workshop combined. In this room he spent many days carving curious powder horns as souvenirs for his children and friends. It was in this little garret room, too, that he kept the cherrywood coffin, fashioned with his own hands, in which he was finally buried.

Several miles below the Boone homestead is a farm formerly owned by Daniel Boone, which was transferred by him to William Cashaw. Richard Matson, who now owns and lives upon this farm, has the deed from Boone to Cashaw. The signature of the pioneer is plainly visible. It was written firmly, but by a hand which betrayed the tremor of old age. The consideration was "three hundred dollars, American money." John B. Calloway, a Justice of the Peace, for Femme Osage township, affixed his signature, May 6, 1815, and the deed was duly filed with the recorder of deeds of St. Charles county. Beside this interesting souvenir, Mr. Matson has a number of articles, a table and several canes made from walnut lumber taken from the fort in Darst Bottom, built by the pioneer. At this place the Boones were besieged for several days by hostile Indians. Their water supply, which was taken from the big spring near by, was cut off, and they were forced to dig a well nearer the fort.

Jefferson Calloway, a respected colored man, now a resident of Marthasville, where Boone was buried, has a vivid recollection of the great woodsman. He remembers him as a tall, dignified man, walking with a cane. A feature of his dress was a cape of dressed deerskin. Boone was a very quiet man, courteous to all he met. A few years before his death he became taciturn and moody, and would several times each day, go up into his garret workshop and get into his coffin to "try the fit of it."

(The above article was found in an old scrap book owned by Mrs. S. C. Franklin, of Mt. Vernon, Ky. A picture of Boone's Missouri residence also appears along with the article. The citizens of Warren county, Mo., dedicated a monument in the Bryan cemetery at Marthasville on October 29, 1915, at the original graves of Daniel Boone and his wife, Rebecca Bryan Boone, whose remains were transferred to Frankfort, Kentucky in 1845.)

The Boone Way Association, with headquarters at Mt. Vernon, Kentucky, are planning a highway from Lexington, North Carolina, Boone's old home in that state, to Marthasville and Warrenton, Mo., Boone's last residence. This highway is named Boone Way and is already routed between Cumberland Gap and Louisville, a distance of 250 miles, 150 miles of which is already turn-piked, the remainder is being constructed. The two old homes, 1000 miles apart, will be connected by this highway. The routing will probably be finished during the year 1916.

GET RID OF THOSE POISONS IN YOUR SYSTEM.

You will find Dr. King's New Life Pills a most satisfactory laxative in releasing the poison from your system. Accumulated waste and poisons cause manifold ailments unless released. Dizziness spots before the eyes, blackness and a miserable feeling generally are indications that you need Dr. King's New Life Pills. Take a dose to night and you will experience grateful relief by morning.

The note of this government to Great Britain on the shipping question ought to satisfy not only everyone in this country who believes that an emphatic protest should be made against interference with our commerce, but the Berlin government as well. With a matter of dollars involved Washington in its representations employs language scarcely less forceful than it used in addressing Germany on the subject of the murder of American men, women and children. The tone of the communication indicates that it regards the violation of international law as but little less reprehensible than the violation of the laws of humanity and civilization.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Friday, Nov. 5, 1915.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Woman's Club, held at the home of Mrs. L. W. Bethurum, was well attended and much interest was manifested in the plans for the year's work. The Vice President, who is acting in the absence of the President, presided. Some of the committees reported and then the subject of a location for a library was proposed. Owing to the fact that the club does not own a building the question of a place for the books is even more perplexing than obtaining them. Some suggestions were made but no action was taken and this matter was left over to be taken up at the next club meeting.

As it did seem possible to have a representative from this club to the Fourth District Convention, held in Lancaster Saturday, a motion carried to have a written report sent.

The Woman's Club has not been asleep, just resting it seems; but now it is awake and each member realizes there is a duty for her. Of course, the club has its successes and its failures, but being able to overlook the obstacles and rejoice over victory, is no small virtue. Our membership now numbers twenty-one active members working for the civic betterment and the welfare of the general public. The Woman's Club first conceived the idea of a Lyceum course for Mt. Vernon. Two years ago a short but very good course was given. The course given last year was not so good, but this year we are to have a course second to none. The Woman's Club can't go far in the way of financing, yet they are willing to work and will do their utmost to make the Lyceum course a success. This is only one of many things the club has been the means of bringing about. It is hoped that the Literary movement will prove as successful.

The meeting was adjourned until Friday Nov. 5. The next regular meeting will be held at the Langdon Dormitory. The Home Economic department will have charge of the program and Misses Khron and Newberry will give a demonstration in Domestic Science.

ROCKCASTLE COUNTY CIVIC LEAGUE.

We are finding the good citizens of the county not only willing, but anxious to support the Civic League. It is a general opinion that it is the right time for such a move, and it is only a matter of a few weeks until a strong organization will be effected. The membership pledge card—which we shall quote again—reads as follows: "As a citizen of Rockcastle county, I pledge myself to obey and support the laws of Kentucky, applying to said county, and shall use every honorable means to induce all others to obey and support the same."

This pledge has been signed by the following men: E. S. Albright, U. G. Baker, S. F. Bowman, Alfred Bryant, J. H. Barnes, D. C. Craig, E. B. Cox, Robt. Cox, C. C. Cox, W. A. Cox, C. C. Davis, Brack Durham, M. G. Fish, W. H. Fish, W. A. Wallin, E. R. Gentry, Fred Kruger, J. A. Landrum, A. G. Lovell, James Maret, J. T. Meadows, J. C. Moore, M. J. Miller, Floyd Miller, W. A. Owens (Spiro), James Pinkerton, W. M. Poynter, D. C. Poynter, W. B. Reinke (Pine Hill), W. J. Sparks, C. D. Sutton, F. L. Thompson, Jr., C. M. Thompson, E. B. Taylor, J. W. VanWinkle, James Winstead, H. T. Young. Others have probably signed pledge cards, but the cards have not reached the secretary, and many good citizens have not had an opportunity yet.

The next meeting of the Civic League is to be held at the Court House on Friday night (Nov. 12th) at seven o'clock. This is an important meeting, and we should like to have all of the present members, those who expect to become members and all friends of the movement, both men and women, present.

When a typographical error sometimes creeps in by mistake, and our friends rush in and tell us what a first-class ass we'd make, we just overlook their errors, never giving them a thought; editors are pachydermic, and—Oh we're used to that.

When our advertisers cancel, telling us the sheets no good, when subscribers choose to pay us in tomatoes or cordwood well, we simply grin and bear it, though it leaves us rather flat; editors can exist somehow—somehow we get used to that.

When your daughter's graduation or her wedding day comes round, you expect the kind of write ups that in adjectives abound, do you ever stop to thank us, though his done with great "ecst," that's what editors are there for, and—Oh, well, we're used to that—EX.

COME home to dinner with me and have some of my wife's good bread made from MORNING STAR FLOUR

The majority of men relish good, fresh, tasty bread and miss it keenly when compelled to eat ordinary bread.

Complete confidence comes to the woman who uses the Morning Star Flour in her bakings, confidence when she buys, for every sack is guaranteed to give satisfaction, confidence when she bakes for Morning Star Flour never goes wrong, but goes further than usual flour by making more loaves to the sack, causes the least care in the mixing, and kneading, and produces the most satisfying bread, light, sweet, snowy white loaves with crusts delicious and tender, and there is least waste from stale ends and dry crusts, for bread made from Morning Star Flour keeps fresh longer than other. It permits of baking more loaves at a time and less often, thereby saving in work, fuel and care.

Until you have tried Morning Star Flour you will never know a perfect flour

Will You Read This Twice?

A very important question to-day which every housekeeper must decide for herself is whether she prefers pure, cream of tartar baking powder like Royal or whether she is willing to use baking powder made of inferior substitutes which do not add healthful qualities to the food.

One kind is easily distinguished from the other, since the laws of various States require the ingredients to be printed upon the label. If anyone is in doubt which kind is most healthful, it is worth while to ask the family doctor. Then decide.

And when once a decision is reached let no advertisement or dealer's argument or canvasser's solicitation change the decision.
It is not a question of a few cents or of pleasing a salesman.
It is a question of health.

If this appeals to you as reasonable and sensible advice, it is worth reading twice. And it is worth remembering.

Langdon News

A most interesting meeting of the Mother's Club was held at the Langdon school on Thursday afternoon of last week. The subject under discussion was "The Literary Education of the Child"
the sixth of a series of topics which are being studied by the members of the club. The attendance was the largest in the history of the organization. These meetings will be held monthly throughout the year.

On Friday afternoon several of the teachers enjoyed an auto trip to Crab Orchard, where they had dinner, returning that evening.

Miss Ducher, of Bristol, was a visitor for a short time this week at the Langdon school. She was accompanied by Miss Evelyn Green, who has entered school at Langdon.

The people who need religion
are: The man who left his horse out in the cold all day without a blanket on; the man who growls like a wild beast when his wife asks him for money; the woman who is not what she ought to be;
the minister who is looking for another place and a higher salary;
the man who walks the streets
with his hands in his pockets
while his wife carries the baby;
the man who keeps a dog and can't afford to take his home paper.

Herbert Cox gave a "Tacky Party" last Saturday night. Those present were Misses Amy Proctor, Sally Reynolds, Christine Davis, Margaret Welch, Mamie
Baker, Onie Silvers, Verna Welch, Bernice Landrum, Louana Whitehead and Mary Mae Latham.

Messrs. David Craig, Rob Mc-

STANLEYS MAJORITY

396

With Laurel county's vote today officially certified in the Governor's race, as 1,124 for Morrow, Stanley's majority in the State is 990. This is subject to a further reduction of 127 in McCracken and 30 in Daviess, where these votes are being contested by the Republicans, and to the addition of 180 votes in McCreary county, where Democrats have taken legal steps to prevent the padding of the Morrow vote.

Why don't you buy a season's ticket from the school children and give the child a chance to see the show at the price of one ticket as the ticket you buy serves for you and also entitles the child to see the show beginning Nov. 19.

THE GARDEN OF EDEN.

The Garden of Eden is again in the news after being more or less in the background ever since Eve used her feminine influence to persuade poor old Adam to eat that apple. British troops have encamped in the Garden of Eden, in the Persian Gulf theater of war,
on the banks of the Euphrates,
and have named one place "Serpent Corner," and another "Temptation Square." The humor of the soldiers is deflected by the London Times in a weighty editorial.

To have an impressive name is an unquestionable advantage in life. But, the best of all advantages, is to make for oneself a good name by giving ones name good associations. There are those who think children ought to be given temporary names to be changed by themselves when they grow up. It is doubtful if the plan would do much if any good.
The name might be a more sesible one. At a dramatic school where I used to lecture, it was the fashion among the students to take what they called stage names. Their selections were often comic, showing bad taste. For highflown names, obviously made up, they would put aside their own names, much more natural and much better sounding.

by fire late last Monday afternoon.
Mr. Cummins was preparing to move back to the farm the follow-

THE PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL AVIATION RACE AROUND THE WORLD.

Copyright, 1914, by Panama Pacific International Exposition Company.

In May, 1915, the Panama-Pacific International exposition at San Francisco will be the gathering place of the most expert aviators from all the civilized nations of the globe, when the start is made of the great aerial race-around-the-world for a prize of $300,000, the largest sum ever offered for any single sporting event in history. Every description of motor-driven air craft will participate in this stupendous loop-the-loop around the globe. The race will represent the climax of all the world's aeronautical activities and will stand for all time as an immortal epic of human daring, human ingenuity, and the marvelous epitome of the progress of mankind. It will be the supreme adventure of our day. As an achievement, it will mark a historic cycle that will compare with the crossing of the Atlantic by Columbus and the circumnavigation of the world by the fleet of Magellan in 1522. Aviators have long discussed the project of round-the-world aeroplane tours.

COLOSSAL GROUP OF STATUARY FOR VAST EXPOSITION COURT—"NATIONS OF THE EAST."

Copyright, 1914, by Panama Pacific International Exposition Company.

This photograph shows the enlarged figures for the colossal group, "Nations of the East," to crown the Arch of the Rising Sun at the Panama-Pacific International exposition at San Francisco in 1915. With the exception of the elephant and the camel on the left all the figures are completed. The elephant, however, will be surmounted by a howdah and the camel by a rider. The group in its entirety is the conception of A. Stirling Calder, with whom Frederick G. R. Roth and Leo Lentelli co-operated. The huge elephant in the center of the group was modeled by Mr. Roth, who also modeled the camels. The mounted horsemen were modeled by Leo Lentelli. From left to right the figures are: Arab warrior, negro servant bearing baskets of fruit, camel and rider, falconer, elephant, representing India; Buddhist lama, bearing emblem of authority; camel and rider, negro servant, Mongolian warrior.

WORLD'S FIRST INDOOR AEROPLANE FLIGHT.

Copyright, 1914, by Panama Pacific International Exposition Company.

The first time an aeroplane ever flew inside a building was when Lincoln Beachey, the famous aviator, flew in the huge Palace of Machinery on the grounds of the Panama-Pacific International exposition to open in San Francisco on February 20, 1915. The Palace of Machinery is almost 1,000 feet long and 136 feet high. Beachey passed from one end to the other of the building, flying for more than 300 feet and at height of 60 feet. The most remarkable feature of the flight was that he had to steer a straight course down the center aisle, which is 75 feet in width.

A PINE WHOOPING COUGH REMEDY.

Mothers, Dr. Bell's Pine Tar and Honey is just the remedy for your children's cold ailments. The fact is that pine is a quick enemy of cold conditions. Its qualities loosen the mucus in the throat, soothes the lungs and open up the air passages. The combination of honey, soothing and pleasant with the loosening pine quality makes this an ideal cough remedy for children. Each passing year brings for it new friends. A family of growing children cannot afford to be without it. 25c a bottle.

COL. COYNE TALKS OF OWN CONDITION

Prothinent Louisville Contractor Says He Was Improved by Tanlac.

Louisville Ky., Nov. 11, 1915.

Col. Joseph Coyne, one of the best known General contractors in the South and builder of many miles of hard surfaced streets and roads in around Louisville, who resides at 438 South Fourth Street, this city, has added his words of commendation to those of thousands of others. Praising Tanlac he said:

"My kidneys have annoyed me for a number of years. I suffered great pain as a result. I also suffered periodically from rheumatism, the condition affecting various parts of my body. I walked with great difficulty and could not use my hands naturally. I suffered from a pain in the ball of my foot fully ten years. That pain has disappeared.

"My kidneys are greatly improved and my rheumatism has virtually disappeared. My strength has returned and my appetite and sleep have improved. I feel vigorous and healthy, and attribute the change to the use of Tanlac only. This medicine is all right, I recommend and commend it."

Tanlac the premier preparation, is on sale in Mt. Vernon, at the Drugstore of Chas. C. Davis, and can also be obtained at the Central Drug Co., Livingston, and John Robins' Drug Brodhead, Ky.

BEST COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN

"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburg one of my children had a hard cold and coughed dreadfully. Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefitted him at once. I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take. They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotics, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

FOR SALE

One good farm in Rockcastle and another tract of 350 acres of wild land, which will be sold at a bargain. There is enough timber on the land to pay for it. I also have a good sawmill located near the above described land. This mill is also for sale at a big bargain.

The above mentioned farm consists of 115 acres, 25 acres in cultivation, has two houses and two barns, 250 young fruit trees, good well and plenty of stock water. There are about 40 acres of this land which can be cultivated with any kind of machinery. Good wire fence around most of the land. This land is located on Sand hill, seven miles South of Mt. Vernon. If sold at once will go at a bargain.

The wild lands above mentioned are located on Long branch, near Livingston, Ky. This land will be sold at a bargain, and when I say bargain, I mean just what I say. If you are interested ask the price, you will be astonished when you learn how cheap this land can be bought. There is enough for two good farms and will be divided if desired. ## Hopewell

Mrs. Wm. Niceley has returned home after spending two weeks with her daughter Mrs. Mary Harper, at Spiro.—Born to the wife of Robert Marler November 6th, a girl.—Rev. Carmical is holding a meeting at Sinking valley. The new county road that was surveyed several months ago thru this section, has been worked and will soon be opened for travel.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor of this place, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Rowe near Mt. Vernon.—Died, Oct. 28, Miss Ola Robbins, aged nineteen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Robbins. She had been sick for more than two months. The remains were laid to rest at the Pitman burying ground.

Mrs. Charles Carmical, while making apple butter, lost her balance and fell on the stove landing with one hand in the apple butter, receiving a very painful burn.—Mrs. Wm. Barnes spent Saturday and Sunday with her brother, George Niceley.—Mrs. Charles Carmical and daughter spent Friday with her brother, J. B. Cummings, at Mt. Vernon.—Mrs. James Niceley spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. George Barnes.—The protracted meeting that was to have commenced at Hopewell last Saturday was postponed on account of Revs Phelps and Clifford not coming to assist Rev. Barnes.—This has been the prettiest fall for several years and we see no reason why people should not be up to time with their work.—Mrs. Frank Kirby and child, the eight year old son of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Carmical, are among the sick.

DESPONDENCY DUE TO INDIGESTION
It is not at all surprising that persons who have indigestion become discouraged and despondent. Here are a few words of hope and cheer for them by Mrs. Alanche Bowers, Indiana, Penn. "For years my digestion was so poor that I could only eat the lightest foods. I tried everything that I heard of to get relief, but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them did I find the right treatment. Soon began to improve, and since taking a few bottles of them my digestion is fine." For sale by all dealers.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic, all Teething Troubles and Diarrhea. It regulates the Stomach and Bowels, assimilates the Food, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

'Tis Said—

Our nation is composed of a luxury-loving people, careless of cost and reckless of expenditure, with the lack of realization what wise economy means.

If that be so, let us endeavor to mold our habits and desires as wisdom dictates, and prepare for future emergencies and opportunities and open an account—NOW in

The Bank of Mt. Vernon MT. VERNON, KY.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Household.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst. I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my household work. I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off. I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.
